

Aveos becomes member of IATP

One of few MROs to join prestigious organization

MONTREAL, November 17, 2008 — Aveos Fleet Performance Inc., formerly ACTS, is pleased to announce that it has joined the International Airlines Technical Pool (IATP) association, a network of over 100 airlines and about 30 suppliers that offer mutual assistance in sharing of resources, finding ways of reducing costs and improving operational efficiency. The acceptance of Aveos into the IATP is testament to the company's reputation and broad service offering.

"As a full-service solutions provider of airframe, engine, component, technical training and engineering services to the world aviation community, Aveos will benefit from increased visibility among a prestigious group of airlines and partners," said Chahram Bolouri, President and CEO. "We look forward to working closely with all IATP members and contributing ideas and solutions to common issues," continued Mr. Bolouri.
